PITTSBURGH

ABOUT

ReelAbilities Pittsburgh presents award-winning films that promote awareness and appreciation of the lives, stories and artistic expressions of individuals with disabilities.

2019 FESTIVAL

The 7th annual ReelAbilities Pittsburgh Film Festival takes place September 4 - 11 at SouthSide Works Cinema. This year's lineup includes 22 narrative and documentary films from around the globe, five visiting filmmakers and leaders in inclusive filmmaking, and post-film receptions at a pop-up art exhibit. Join us for one week of Pittsburgh premieres, Q&A sessions, special guests, and more!

ACCESSIBILITY

All films will be presented with open captions, audio description and ASL interpretation. Southside Works Cinema is fully accessible. Financial assistance is available.

ART SHOW

ReelAbilities Pittsburgh presents a pop-up art exhibit featuring printmaking works by artists-in-residence at Creative Citizen Studios, a local organization that seeks to build bridges between the arts and disabilities communities. This year's art exhibit was created in collaboration with the Andy Warhol Museum. The exhibit is free and open to the public.
